drawing
confidently

Zeke I (Pat) have noticed you drawing a lot lately. When you first started kindergarten you were not very confident about your ability to draw, and would often seek help for drawing. Now when you choose to draw, you just sort yourself out and sit down and draw. Recently you drew Baymax and Maui. It is great to see you so confident about putting pen to paper now, drawing without hesitation. Keep up all the great drawing Zeke - your pictures are awesome!
