

'Expert Weaver' and 'Who said 'good is good'?' Coming to Tauranga!

Following the success of her two lectures in Auckland and Hamilton, Lynn Rupe will be presenting 'Who said Good is Good' and 'Expert Weavers' in Tauranga

Expert Weaver

Tuesday 24 July, 6:00pm-8:00pm

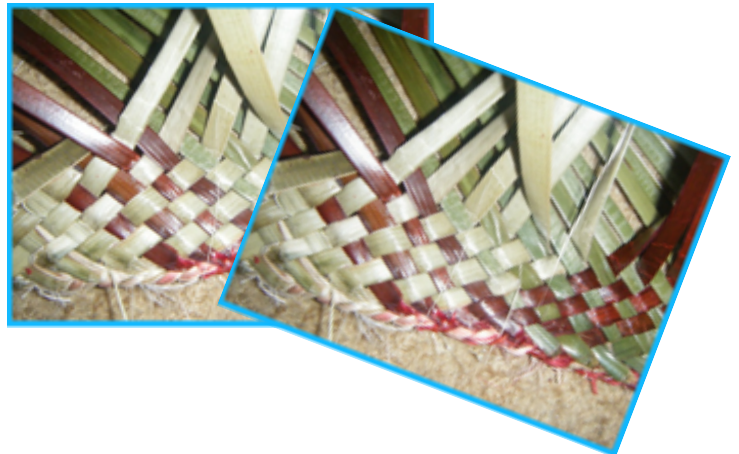

Te Whāriki 2017 says, "the expert weaver will examine the foundations for planning and technique. If these are sound, the quality will be seen on the face-up side." During this workshop we will delve into Te Whāriki 2017 and consider what you would weave into your local curriculum to create an whāriki worthy of an expert weaver. What does Te Whāriki 2017 inspire you to weave?

During the workshop you will have the opportunity to think about your local curriculum and decide what is valuable for children's learning. Also you will ask yourself the question what makes an expert weaver? At the end of the workshop you will have a woven whāriki representing the foundations of learning for children - foundations that will support children for lifelong learning.

Who said 'good is good'?

Tuesday 28 August, 6:00pm-8:00pm

Guy Claxton wrote, "We are built to learn by imitation. Evolution has equipped us with brains that are designed from the moment of birth to do what people around us are doing." The questions are then; what are we modelling? what are we teaching by just being? Thoughts and ideas that hopefully will provoke discussion and reflection about the messages we are giving children moment by moment. Discussion that may leave you wondering 'who is my authentic self'.

Just some of the great feedback received from teachers who attended these lectures in Hamilton and Auckland:

"Tena koe Lynn, what food for thought. I felt very supported by your lecture. I love your growth mindset and feel empowered by what you present. You are easy to listen to and kept my attention. ELP lectures really empower and support my teaching. Thank you team ELP"

"Lynn presented really well. She discussed, explained and let us into her 'mind' - what she was grappling with. Really thought-provoking - thank you!"
