

Liam loves to read & write

Liam noticed me sorting through the sign in sheets and he asked me what I was doing. I replied "I am looking to see who is signing in Liam, and I think it might be time for you to try out the new writing sheets". "OK" he said with confidence and he sat himself down and got to work. After 5 minutes I sat down beside and was very surprised to find that he had independently copied some of the words from the sheet. He pointed to them and told me what they were. "Wow Liam great reading and writing, Mum and Gran are going to be very proud of you", I said. Liam lifted his shoulders with pride. I had noticed Liam and Holly sharing some fun the previous day as Liam sat down to read the learning story I had just written him and when he said "Wow that is me!", I felt very proud and knew he felt the story reflected his learning. Holly was amused and said "Liam you can't read that". Liam replied "yes I can". I know that you also really enjoy the online phonics song Liam that we share in the owl group and the way we find words that match the phonological sounds. You share "L" with me, with Lachlan and with Lucas who has now gone to school. Your confidence to embrace new learning is exciting Liam. Lynne - July 2014
